NYCREW's 'Oenological Adventure Around the World' at Cushman & Wakefield was a delightful respite from Blue Monday. The tour was led by Ellisa Cooper- wine expert. Ellisa is the Director of Wine Education at Barterhouse- a small import and wholesale company, specializing in rare and collectible wines and imports from around the world. She developed 'The Two Things You Need to Know About Wine', simple paired takeaways to help wine lovers develop the language to describe wines they want to professionals at restaurants and wine shops.

The tour featured Sparkling Wines - Rimarts Cava Brut Nature NV Penedes Spain; White Wines - Christoffel Riesling Classic Mosel Germany and Domaine aux Moines Savennieres 2005, Loire Valley, France; Red Wines - Kerner Estate Pinot Noir 2007 Marlborough New Zealand and Fonterenza Rosso de Montalcino 2004 Tuscan Italy; Chocolate Station-Highway Cabernet Savignon 2005 Sonoma California US and Sandemans "Vau" Vintage port magnum 1997 Douro Portugal
Each wine station on the tour was accompanied by the perfect matching cheese. You can hear Ellisa weekly as she is a regular on "Winesday", the weekly wine feature on Martha Stewart Living Radio on Sirius/XM.

Sharon Khurdan, President NYCREW

Don't miss the next NYCREW event - Thursday March 18th as NYCREW celebrates Women's History Month with the legacy of Frank Lloyd Wright.
