

October 18, 2010

---

News

The NYC Real Estate Expo

November 5, 2010

New York Marriott Marquis, NYC

The fall season is quickly coming upon us and with it arrives the 2nd annual NYC Real Estate Expo. The Expo takes place Friday, November 5th at the New York Marriott Marquis, Times Square from 9am-5pm.

We are excited about showcasing our exhibitors, vendors and speakers. Over 160 vendors will take part in the event and there are dozens of educational seminars and forums going on throughout the course of the day. Among the outstanding individuals who will be presenting at the event are Economic Development Commissioner Seth Pinsky, Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY) President Steven Spinola, Prudential Douglas Elliman Chairman Faith Hope Consolo, president Diane Ramirez of Halstead Property, Real Capital Analytics chief economist Sam Chandan, Massey Knakal Realty Chairman Robert Knakal and CEO Paul Massey and more than three dozen other luminaries representing many aspects of New York City's residential and commercial real estate world.

"The NYC Real Estate Expo is a great opportunity to learn from the stories and tested methods of our hugely successful speakers as they cover the most relevant topics affecting the real estate market today," said executive director, Anthony Kazazis. "Though many debate about the current state and future of our real estate market, one thing remains clear, it is imperative for industry professionals to keep abreast of the latest trends and changes, and stay on top of the best products and services that our area businesses have to offer."

We are dedicated to bringing in the highest quality real estate suppliers and service providers to meet and talk one-on-one with. Our exhibitors, all experts in their fields include banks, attorneys, residential and commercial real estate brokers, developers, mortgage companies, social media companies, accountants, title insurance companies, marketing companies and various organizations to name a few. The 2009 Expo, held last year at the Roosevelt Hotel, attracted over 2,000 attendees. This year organizers anticipate that the number of attendees will double. "We've had such a tremendous response already from a huge cross section of the real estate industry."

Sponsored by Bank of America Home Loans, Resident Media, Brownstoner, MetLife, ARS Abstract Ltd, Kings Realty, Procida, Cmaeon, Withers & Bergman LLP, Massey Knakal Realty, Citibank, Margolin, Winer & Evans LLP, Citibank, Wells Fargo Home Loans, REBNY & Manhattan Chamber of Commerce and many other prominent companies and organizations. Media sponsors include Real Estate Weekly, The New York Commercial Observer, The NY Real Estate Journal, The Real Deal, The Mann Report, The New York Magazine, GlobeSt.com, The Perspective R/E Media Group, National Mortgage Professional Magazine, The Epoch Times & the Queens Courier. NYC Real Estate Expo is one of the City's only full-scale, real estate expositions geared exclusively towards the real estate and real estate-related professional.

Kazazis said there is still a small window of opportunity for those considering exhibiting at the show. "This event is an effective and affordable way to maximize your exposure and visibility to highly motivated professional consumers," he said. "Meet and connect with fellow real estate professionals, investors and small business owners looking to invest in the real estate industry and in their lives. This is an exclusive opportunity to share contacts, exchange business leads and network with targeted exhibitors and high quality real estate-minded professionals."

Pre-registration for the event is only $30 online ($50 at the door.) For more information on registration, exhibiting or for our seminar schedule, please visit www.nycrealestateexpo.com. "The NYC Real Estate Expo will be the must-attend real estate event in New York City," said Kazazis "Come join us for this dynamic real estate shopping, information gathering and networking opportunity."