Commercial Real Estate Professionals "Make It Happen" at Sales Convention 2010

Commercial sales professionals from across the U.S. and Canada gathered in Austin, Texas to network with peers, receive updates on the commercial network, learn about new marketing services and listen to industry experts on how to succeed in today's market.

Attendees found the two days of learning opportunities exceptional. Cassandra Catania, manager at Prudential Commercial Real Estate in Las Vegas, stated it best. "I found the convention to be highly motivational and can't wait to provide an update to my associates. I will definitely educate them on the importance of attending next year's convention in San Diego. It's a great networking and learning event."

Commercial attendees also celebrated with their peers at the 2009 Commercial Awards Reception at the Austin Hilton. John Trost, Prudential Commercial Real Estate FL, Daytona Beach, Fla., was recognized as the No. 1 Pinnacle Sales Professional Award winner. The Faith Hope Consolo Team, Prudential Douglas Elliman Real Estate, New York City, N.Y., was recognized as the No. 1 Pinnacle Team Award winner and Prudential Douglas Elliman Real Estate in New York City earned the No. 1 Pinnacle Office Award.
