Team marketing space in 'luxury land'

The leasing team of Faith Hope Consolo, chairman, and Joseph Aquino, executive vice president of Prudential Douglas Elliman's Retail Group, has been chosen to market 136 Greene Street, a grand multi-level space in Soho, known for its concentration of high-end home furnishing and fashion brands.

Located between Houston and Prince Streets, the store boasts 3,600 s/f at ground level, a 3,900 s/f selling lower level, 35 feet of frontage and it recently underwent a multi-million dollar renovation.

Other internationally known brands along the street include Agnes B, Armani Casa, Wolford and Space NK.

It is also around the corner from Mercer Kitchen, Jean-George Vongerichten's famous celebrity outpost in the Mercer Hotel. In addition to fashion retailers, the area is a center for kitchen and bath showrooms, such as Bulthaup Kitchen, B&B Italia and Poltrona Frau.

"The size of this store can easily accommodate a furniture showroom or fashion house," pointed out Aquino. "Moreover, it is on one of the best streets in an area that attracts shoppers from every corner of the globe, every day."

Added Consolo, "When someone thinks of Soho, it's about shopping, shopping and more shopping. This is luxury-land with something for everyone."
